June 18th

The Faith & Community Based Integration Project

announces
a

Service Fair

9:00 – 12:00

Let's work together to help families in need.

Reaching out to the community is a tradition among faith-based and community based organizations like yours. Chances are, you're already helping others help themselves.

FaithWorks Indiana, launched by Governor Frank O'Bannon in the fall of 1999, is an initiative that provides expert assistance to faith-based and community based organizations interested in supporting their community through vital human services.

The Service Fair will be held at Countryside Christian Church
7056 West 450 North
Michigan City, IN 46360

The Service Fair will be an event you won't want to miss.

Over 10 WorkOne partner organizations will be available to provide information and educate attendees on navigating their systems. In addition cross training will be provided on the referral methods utilized by the WorkOne partners and the Faith Based organizations.

A special seminar will be given regarding the CS3 a job matching system. A free Online service that is available to persons seeking employment or wanting to learn about an extensive list of positions throughout the entire state of Indiana.

The Days events will focus on :

- Cooperation
